Winner—B. g. by Leonatus—Belle of Runnymede.

Post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won in a hard drive. Jackanapes was the best. Jockey Burns picked the best path up the back stretch, but had to swing wide into the homestretch. Forget Not had the path all the way. Helen H. Gardner ran well and finished more resolutely than usual. Eddie Jones seemed to sink. Forbush will do better on a dry track.

Winner—Ch. c, by Harry O'Fallon—Vena N.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily at the end after an early drive; second and third were under keen pressure. Harry Nutter was the best as the race was run but was extremely lucky to win. He was in a pocket on the far turn but Clay waited for the natural spread at the head of the stretch and then came through. Daily Racing Form ran a good race. He was unfortunate at the start and was placed badly throughout. Like Harry Nutter he was lucky to get through at the head of the stretch. Mulvihill looked good but was perhaps short and tired at the end. McAlbert got a miserable ride. Locust Blossom had a bad attack of the slows. She could not outrun a cart horse. Throw her race out. Loyal Girl showed a lot of speed as far as she went.

Harry Nutter, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Daily Racing Form, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Mulvihill, show, 2 to 5. McAlbert, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. f, by Cayuga—Cheese Straw.
Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. There was little or no action behind the winner. Cheesestraw had an easy thing of it. She got away flying and was never in trouble. Rumor has it the filly cannot go a route, but judging from this race she could have gone any 2-year-old route. Pantland ran a good race and is an improving colt. First Past ruined whatever chance of winning he had by running away a quarter at top speed in a false break. Another excuse is offered for the colt's bad showing; he was kicked in the stall and had a large swelling on his left hind leg. Florence Anetia is faint-hearted. She swerved badly in the stretch under punishment. Irene Hayes acted green and will probably improve from this race.

Cheesestraw, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Pantland, place, 7 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Florence Anetia, show, evens. First Past, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Winner—Ch. c, by Wawekus—Miss Yates.
Off at first break to a good start. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second driving hard. Hobart showed phenomenal speed and made a new track record. He is a good racehorse but is a trifle dicky in front. This was perhaps one of the reasons that he stopped so badly the last sixteen. The early pace he set, though, was terrific and under it almost any horse would have tired. Tenby ran a cracking good race, and had it been an eighth further he would have won. Old Saugus' race was good. He can win in lower company.

Hobart, place, out. Tenby, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Old Saugus, show, out.

Winner—B. h, by Plevna—Abukru.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second and third were hand ridden. Abuse was the best and is in good form. He is a great sprinter. Bloss fooled around with him at the post until he eventually got a running start. Lady Ellerslie II ran a good race, but she is not good enough to beat Abuse. Nutt saw he had no chance to beat Abuse, so he did not punish the filly through the stretch. Hugh Penny can be marked for early action. He was right there at the finish and coming strong. He looks better than he ever did before. The race was always between the first three. Rival Dare and Alma Glyn both showed speed. They belong in much lower company.

Scratched—8324 Green Witch, 90; 11852 Weird, 104; 6120 Murat, 107.
Abuse, place, out. Lady Ellerslie II, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Hugh Penny, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. h, by Pirate of Penzance—Thrifty.
Off at first break to a good start. It was a terrific drive between the first two; third and fourth were driving also. Banquo II was lucky. That accounts for his victory. He was about the only horse in the race that was not interfered with. Clara Meader should have won. She was bumped into and shut off at every turn and then taken around the field on the stretch turn. With clear sailing the filly would have won off by herself. Blue Lick also had bad racing luck. The ride on him was a bad one. Dr. Marks looked dangerous on the stretch turn, but tired badly at the end. Crossmolina seems to be of little or no present account.

Scratched—11881 Hosi, 105.
Overweights—Clifton B., 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. g, by Long Taw—Meddle.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; it was a hard drive for the place. Meddler is in rare form at present. He was under restraint all the way and played with his field in the stretch. ABE Furst, considering it was his first out, ran a cracking good race. He was lucky, though, to get the place. Braw Lad was the better horse. Caywood started through on the inside at the head of the stretch, but was impeded by ABE Furst and was obliged to pull out and go around. He claimed a foul, but it was not allowed. Miss Ross ran a better race than the figures show. Watch her. Phidias showed speed. Hop Scotch shot his bolt early. He runs best in the mud.
